

UF YOUTH PROTECTION TRAINING (YCS800)

Per standards for UF-affiliated youth activities as defined in the OYCS Scope, youth activities are responsible for ensuring that any program staff, volunteers, and other individuals directly in contact with minors under the age of 18 successfully complete an annual Youth Protection Training (course number YCS800) offered by the University of Florida.

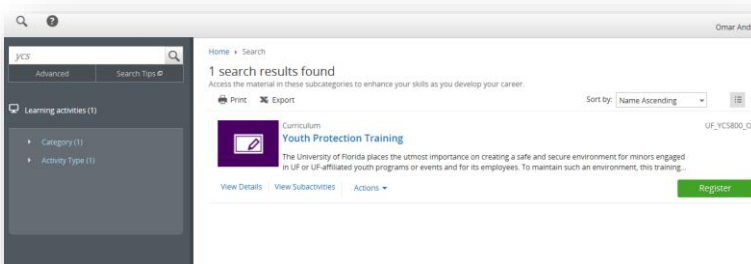

UF staff and faculty can access the Youth Protection Training (YCS800) via “myUFL” by following the navigation steps listed below. Please contact us at: oycs@usfa.ufl.edu to learn how volunteers and non-UF employees can access the training.
